

National Dental Association

With roots going back to 1900, the National Dental Association (NDA) promotes oral health equity among people of color by harnessing the collective power of its members, advocating for the needs of and mentoring dental students of color, and raising the profile of the profession in our communities. <https://ndaonline.org/>

National Dental Hygienists Association

The National Dental Hygienists' Association (NDHA) was founded in 1932 by African American dental hygienists to address the special problems faced by the minority hygienist in the profession as well as to unite the limited number of minority dental hygiene practitioners in the U.S. The NDHA's mission includes promoting the highest educational and ethical standards for dental hygienists, enhancing recruitment efforts among minority students to increase the number of minority dental hygienists, and increasing access to oral care for under-served communities. <https://www.ndhaonline.org/>

Hispanic Dental Association

Founded in 1990, the Hispanic Dental Association (HDA) is the leading voice for Hispanic oral health. More than 8,000 strong, the HDA provides service, education, advocacy, and leadership for promotion of overall health of the Hispanic and other under-served communities. <https://www.hdassoc.org/>

Society of American Indian Dentists

Founded in 1990, the Society of American Indian Dentists (SAID) is a national, non-profit organization comprised of oral health professionals and students dedicated to promoting and improving the oral health of the American Indian/Alaskan Native community and providing advocacy for the American Indian/Alaskan Native dental professionals across the US. <http://www.thesaidonline.org/>

National Rural Health Association

The National Rural Health Association (NRHA) is a national nonprofit membership organization with more than 21,000 members. The association's mission is to provide leadership on rural health issues through advocacy, communications, education and research. NRHA membership consists of a diverse collection of individuals and organizations, all of whom share the common bond of an interest in rural health. <https://www.ruralhealthweb.org/>